Before the day had begun I prayed to God to help me cook my best, not to place anywhere, not to beat anyone, and certainly not to win. I'm not sure why He answered my prayer with the win, but I'm sure glad He did! The closest thing to the feeling of walking on that stage was the birth of my children.

I am most thankful to Dani Medlin. She laid down the challenge to me to get qualified and come cook at Terlingua. Without her pushing me, I don't think I would have done it. Thanks Dani, I owe you a beer! Thanks to my buddies on the Faded Love Chili team, and the Booze Brothers Show team.

Thanks to those friends who have sent cards and e-mails, and those who have phoned their congratulations. Without friends to share our successes with, those special moments would not be nearly as memorable.

I hope to attend many cook offs this year, see old friends and make new ones. I will do my best to represent CASI as their 2004 Champion. I am very honored to have attained this special recognition. Now if I can just get an invitation to cook for President Bush in Crawford, or Governor Perry in Austin.....

My best wishes to all, may God be with us all.

ED Ponderings

We have been enjoying a wonderful chili tour. We've visited and cooked in Deland, Florida, Kerrville, Del Rio, Terlingua, Seguin, and Marble Falls. We've witnessed CASI at its best all along the route. We've seen many volunteers working to make successful cookoffs, raising monies for charity, and promoting fellowship and fun through chili.

Congratulations to all of the winners at TICC. There were a record number of contestants for the TICC week events, including the American Legion and SOTOL Pod cookoffs. There was plenty of entertainment for them to enjoy, both on the main stage and at Krazy Flats. Many pods participated in open houses and provided meals for the cooks. Thanks to all.

This is a party not to be missed. Start making your plans to join us next year and get out and chase those points.

Here are the cup numbers from the TICC judging levels:

Pre-Finals

40133, 40461, 40478, 40304, 40165, 40272, 40184, 40292, 40159, 40256, 40163, 40197, 40339, 40162

Congratulations to our 38th CASI Champion Roger Foltz

This past year has been most memorable due to the wonderful cooks and sponsors with whom I came into contact as your 37th TICC CASI Champion. We all dream of winning Terlingua and what a great experience it has been. My hat is off to you, Roger, and I hope you have the most wonderful time as Champion.

It Happened in Krazy Flats

Whoever thought three years ago that Krazy Flats would be home to a radio station or a camp site for a CASI Pod complete with their own "hot-tub"? No wonder Sammie Plant had to eat supper and go to bed early. Several chili cooks actually cooked their chili in Krazy Flats on Saturday. Rumor has it that another CASI Pod might set up in Krazy Flats next year.

First time visitors to Krazy Flats ranged from some of the "founders" of CASI to the President of the Bruce Foods Corporation. Numerous CASI members came by to visit throughout the day and NIGHT. The Krazy Flats Open House was another success.

Karin Barnes, a first time visitor, came to the Open House and won a nice door prize, so her husband Phil came the next day to see Krazy Flats for himself. Honey Jones, our 2003 TICC Champion, was on hand signing 2004 TICC Posters, carrying on a tradition that our 2002 Champion Pat Pilchick started last year.

The special edition spaghetti strap shirts sold out in less than half an hour, with the other shirts gone by the end of the day. Cody Oliveira of Bruce Foods provided some great salsa and chips for everyone to enjoy. Twenty Krazy Flats volunteers proudly wore their new Krazy Flats golf shirts and donated over $100.00 to the Big Bend Youth Club from their tip jars. Most of these volunteers have already signed up for next year!!!!!!!

Richard Hinds was proclaimed the "Honorary Mayor" of Krazy Flats for 2004 (the first ever Mayor). A special edition Krazy Flats t-shirt was signed by members and sent to him along with a certificate. Richard, everyone in Krazy Flats says "get well" and we'll see you next year.

Yes, it was a great year and next year looks to be better. Wonder what Krazy Flats will be like in another three years?? A big thanks to all the volunteers who made things happen from the time we started to the very end; it would not have happened without you.

TICC Statistics

The 337 cups distributed at TICC this year went to contestants from 26 states and one territory: Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Florida, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Maryland, Michigan, Mississippi, Missouri, New Mexico, Ohio, Oklahoma, Nebraska, New York, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, Washington, Wisconsin, and the U.S. Virgin Islands.

Guess that means that there are 24 additional states that we need to have represented at Terlingua in 2005!

As you are aware, 333 cups of chili were judged beginning at noon with the Final Table judging commencing at 3:00 p.m. How many judges does it require to accomplish this feat?

There were 32 preliminary judging tables with 160 judges; 17 intermediate judging tables with 85 judges; 9 quarterfinals judging tables with 45 judges; 6 semifinal judging tables with 30 judges; and 3 pre-finals judging tables with 15 judges. The final table was composed of 16 judges.

A special thanks to Diane FitzHenry, Pooch Luhn, and their many volunteers who work so hard to ensure an effective judging process at TICC.

Bess's Best

Once again, hello to all from Lamar, Missouri. Harry and I send our holiday greetings to all.

For many, the chili year and chili cooking are over till the spring and others are fortunate to have indoor cookoffs in the areas where they live or can drive to easily. Now up here in our country, we are starting to get a few winter time cookoffs but for Harry and me, it is all over till spring. I'm having left knee replacement on November 16th and if it is like when I had the right knee done, it will be 6 to 8 weeks before I can drive.

Harry will have to drive the week I am in the hospital, but NO WAY am I going to turn him loose on the Interstate to take us cooking. Harry can mess up without even trying. In October we cooked in Cassville, Missouri. He won first place and all he had on his mind was going and getting the pickup, getting packed, and getting home to tell everyone. I had parked in a lot about a block from the cookoff and thought surely he could go get the truck without anything happening. Well, I was wrong and it cost me $200.00 to get out of Cassville; he drove over a whiskey bottle cutting a front tire beyond repair.

I will have to give him credit, though, for the chili recipe that we cooked in Terlingua this year; we both made Pre-Finals. We were in doubt as to what type of chili to cook in Terlingua this year since we had not been able to cook in Texas and the Southwest this summer. On the Tuesday night before we left for Terlingua, he went into the CASI website, www.chili.org, copied the recipes of all the winners on the website and took bits and pieces from each to make a recipe.

I have been involved in chili cooking for 20 years now, winning Terlingua in 2000, and when someone asks what is my secret ingredient for winning I tell them, "Start with and use good meat". If you use good meat, you'll have good chili; if you use cheap meat, you'll have poor tasting chili.

In the 19 years that we have been flying to Terlingua and other parts of the United States, we encountered more hassle, trouble and property damage this trip than ever before. In NO WAY do I intend to associate religion or offend anyone with a statement in this month's column, but the Scripture says 'The only way into Heaven is thru the Lord.'

Well I want to tell you if you are flying or planning on flying, the only way to the airplane (or gooney bird as Harry calls it) is through the TSA, Transportation Security Administration. They pried the locks off two of our suitcases, and the suitcases were taped with duct tape and labeled 'not locked - okay to inspect'. They went through the contents and crammed it back inside, breaking several items. That was alright and we could live with that, but they insisted that Harry place his digital camera in one of those plastic bowls to run through the scanner. For some reason, the girl insisted on re-running the camera and when she went to place it on the belt again, she dropped it on the floor.

Harry does a lot of photography and after doing research, he bought the top of the line Olympus Digital Telephoto Zoom Camera. When she dropped the camera, it damaged the drive gear on the telephoto and now the camera doesn't work and the pictures we took in Terlingua didn't turn out. Since I have a plate in my knee, I have to be hand scanned, but it didn't stop there. I was patted down and strip searched going down and coming back.

It was not only us. We talked with Ken Peach and his wife from Washington and they encountered problems also with Continental Airlines and TSA, and I am sure there are more stories out there among the chili cooks.

When I write you next month, I hope to be on the mend. I have a list of things a mile long to do before I go into the hospital; nothing big. I have to go to the supermarket so Harry won't go and buy everything we don't need. I also have to take all the credit cards and hide them so Harry can't go Christmas shopping.

Merry Christmas to all!

Dixie, Junior, J.R., Austin and Cheyenne

SWANSON LABELS

All good things eventually come to an end. Kathy Killingsworth at Terlingua School asks that we please stop collecting Swanson's and Campbell's labels. While this program has provided many useful items for the school, the handling and packing requirements that the Campbell Company imposes, combined with the ever increasing shipping costs have finally made the program unworkable. We deeply appreciate the support of the CASI cooks over the years. We thank the cooks, one and all.

“A View from the Top of an Old Chilihead” ©

Getting to the first Great Peppers Meeting has taken a while, and I will digress getting into the GP Meeting even more. You can't rush history any more than you can change it.

In 1977 I started making notes at every cookoff we went to concerning the judging, procedures, etc. Remember, in 1977 there were no rules. Every cookoff did what they wanted and how they wanted. The net result was that the chili cook was going to get screwed. Not all cookoffs were this way, only about 93%. Chili cookoffs were a no-win situation where growth could not happen. I, along with a few others, could see there was a great potential for chili cookoffs to become national and international events. This could only happen if there was some sort of organization. I arrived at Terlingua in 1977 thoroughly ticked off and decided to organize the chili world. 1977 was probably the most pivotal year for the chili world. Events which took place then have resulted in it moving towards where it is today. I will write about that in a future article.

I continued to make notes in 1978 and wrote the first draft of the rules for cooking chili (which I still have a copy of and it would be interesting to run in the TT or GGG one month). In Flatonia at the 1978 cookoff on our way to Terlingua, I reviewed the rules that I had drafted with a lot of people involved in putting on cookoffs and others who were interested in seeing chili cookoffs run fairly and honestly for all cooks. I spent hours reviewing my notes with dozens of people. Later that day, Jan Loop rewrote my draft. From Flatonia we went to Del Rio to party. I woke up at 4:00 AM with the worst hangover I have ever had and could not sleep. I got up and started typing. These were the first chili rules written for all chili cooks. This was to get equality and fairness in chili judging. (I think some rules may have been written for specific cookoffs in the past, but no one had a copy except the cookoff where the rules applied.) Most of these rules are the same ones you cook under today.

I reviewed the rules in Terlingua in 1978 with Frank Tolbert, Paul Smith, Dick Moore, Vann York and Richard Knight. Everyone agreed these rules would have to be followed at all cookoffs. (The rules for judging chili had been published earlier in the year and I named them after Frank Tolbert. Frank did not like rules but he liked these and accepted them, because they carried his name.) If the rules were not followed, points for Terlingua would not be credited. I started keeping the points for Terlingua and the term Tallymaster was created for C.A.S.I. Prior to my keeping the points, they were recorded by Hal John and Judy Wimberly of the Goat Gap Gazette. For the new rules to work, C.A.S.I. had to be in control of the points to make sure the rules were followed.

I have never seen and heard more bitching and moaning about rules as this created from the promoters. They had to start running cookoffs fair, honest, and use the same rules as everyone else. The cooks loved the rules.

Some cookoffs tried to circumvent the rules and others flat refused to apply the rules. Luckenbach was one of the cookoffs that would not accept the rules. I had to be hard assed about some of the cookoffs and would not accept them as legitimate if the rules were not applied. Even though Luckenbach was accepted as the Texas Ladies State Championship at that time, Kathy Morgan refused to follow the C.A.S.I. rules. I tried very hard to talk her into accepting the fact the rules of chili were changing, without any luck. I advised her in writing that this Luckenbach Cookoff would not be recognized as a C.A.S.I. sanctioned event. Word went out that Luckenbach would not be recognized and sanctioned as a C.A.S.I. cookoff and no points or automatic Terlingua qualification would be given. For two years Luckenbach was not recognized by C.A.S.I. This was one of the events that led to the first Great Peppers Meeting. It was also what led to the creation of the Southwest Ladies State Championship. This was Frank Tolbert's suggestion to offset not recognizing Luckenbach. This cookoff is known today as the Southwest Open Championship.

I continued to take notes at cookoffs, listening to what part of the rules worked best and those that needed to be adjusted. Each year I amended the rules for the next chili year. Several Great Peppers asked for input into the rules and to discuss the state of the chili world. Paul Smith and I decided to hold a summit meeting for the pods to come and air their grievances. Thus, the first Great Peppers Meeting was born.

Merry Christmas I'll see you on the trail to Terlingua.

H. Ray King

Scholarship Recipient Update

I would like to thank CASI for giving me the opportunity to advance in my goals. Currently, I am in my sophomore year at St. Phillips College in San Antonio pursuing a Construction Technology Degree while gaining hands-on experience as a project coordinator for an interior finish-out general contractor, as well as a residential home builder. I appreciate all that CASI does for me as well as the seventeen other scholarship recipients. Thanks again, CASI.

National Scholarship Day

CASI's National Scholarship Day was again a success! With 188 bean entries, 100 hot wing entries, and 149 salsa entries, the judges were kept busy determining who had the best in each category.

Thanks to contest coordinators Dave "Mad Jack" Garner, Denise Saunders and Chuck Taylor and the many volunteers who helped ensure the events ran smoothly.

Trophies were awarded to the top 10 and cash awards given to the top 5 in each category. Who were the best of the best?

Beans 1-Linda Harper; 2-Vickie Sanders; 3-Tommy Kriska; 4-Kevin Foley; 5-Melissa Kriska; 6-Alan Dean; 7-Clif Dugan; 8-Robert Nelson; 9-Stan Pitts; 10-Judy Walker.

Hot Wings - 1-Tony Oliveira; 2-Rocky Rockwell; 3-John Caffey; 4-Rick Thomas; 5-Gregg Goodwin; 6-Sue Yates; 7-Randy Moore; 8-Arvol Hodge; 9-Linda Nickle; 10-Roylene Johnson.

Salsa - 1-Louis Gonzales; 2-Herb Ross; 3-Virgil Johnson; 4-Jerry Dickerson; 5-Sissy Hill; 6-Nancy Coultas; 7-Myrl Coultas; 8-Wes Carlson; 9-Dodie Simpson; 10-Roylene Johnson.

Special thanks to Bruce Foods, Renfro Foods and Tyson Foods for sponsoring these events.

Texas Men's State - 2005

Looking for a good reason to cook at Texas Men's State in 2005? Take a gander at the 1st Place trophy. It's signed and numbered and should be quite the addition to your fireplace mantle or trophy shelf.

It's the most wonderful time of the year, and we're fixing to celebrate in proper cowboy fashion. Lajitas hosts its annual Christmas Boardwalk Party on Saturday, December 11th at 6 p.m. A yuletide treat for everyone—especially the young buckaroos—festivities will include complimentary snacks, live music, a dinner buffet, a staged shootout and a visit from the jolliest cowboy of all, Santa himself. So come see Lajitas at its holiday finest. And bring plenty of Christmas cheer.

Free Quarter Page Ad to CASI Pods, State, Regional and International Opens

As a CASI Pod you are required to put on a pod cookoff once a year. To help you advertise your pod cookoff we allow each pod to place one quarter page ad in the Terlingua Trails, each year, free of charge. This ad should run the month before your cookoff occurs. Should you decide that you need an ad larger than a quarter page we will simply bill you for the difference in price. This ad should not be confused with the article advertising your cookoff in the "Cooking with CASI Calendar" section in the Terlingua Trails. That article will start to run as soon as you request your cookoff packet and will run until your cookoff occurs.
