

LAST EVER CHILI COOKOFF AT BLANCO'S BAR & GRILL

Chili cooks had been marking their calendars for close to a year so they would not miss the last chili cookoff at Blanco's Bar & Grill in Houston, TX.

The land Blanco's was nestled on had been sold to the neighboring school, with a strong religious affiliation, which meant the bar had to close. Co-Owner Karin Barnes, started working at Blanco's 30 years ago and quickly became the smile, and quite possibly the reason Blanco's had such a devout following. Blanco's hosted many big names in Country music, but one set fixture was Gary P. Nunn, so who else to give the final concert but the man who claimed Blanco's still remained his favorite honky-tonk to play. After his first gig at Blanco's he contacted Karin and told her he wanted to return. Karin told him that she could not afford him and Gary replied with, "Just give me the proceeds from the door, and you sell the beer." It was the atmosphere at Blanco's he loved and their long time friendship started.

With her ever present smile, Karin commented about Blanco's closing; "It's like when someone dies. But you celebrate life rather than being sad, and that's just what we're planning on doing." The weekend festivities began Friday night with a concert by Gary P. Nunn with standing room only and the dance floor being toe-to-toe with regulars as well as others who came to say farewell and reminisce. There were two special tables filled with chili cooks, thanks to Karin picking out the best in house for her friends. Amongst the two-steppin, waltzing, line-dancin, boot-wearin people on the dance floor, were Karin and her Blanco's crew making sure it was just another successful Friday concert with Gary P. Nunn.

Saturday was an overcast cold day with scattered showers, but it did not keep the cooks from attending. There was a great turnout with 62 chilis turned in and an abundance of public who came to enjoy the chili as well as steal their last moment of fun at Blanco's.

The volunteers to help register, monitor, judge, and tally were abundant as everyone wanted to pitch in to make this cookoff memorable. The overall atmosphere was joyous, even though everyone felt a bit of a heavy heart for our fellow chili friend. There were chili cooks who came from all over Texas to say their farewell to Blanco's and support Karin and the Gulf Coast area pods.

The four Gulf Coast area pods, Houston, Space City, Pasadena, and Piney Woods, had two special presentations for Karin. One was a banner that all of the attendees signed and left their wishes for Karin. The other was a special Wendell Rankin stove presented by the master painter himself along with the 4 GPs of the area pods. Karin found herself in an unusual situation when presented with these two special love gifts; she was speechless.

We thank you, Karin Barnes, for the years of support you have given CASI and the Gulf Coast area pods. Blanco's has become one of the places that chili cooks can memorialize with their tall tales and stories of fun times. And now that you have some extra time on your hands, we all look forward to seeing your ever present smile at more cookoffs.

Susan Armand

BOARD WINTER WORKSHOP

The Board of Directors begins each new year with a workshop consisting of directors and interested members joining together to review TICC and initiate plans for the coming year. Nothing is off the table at this time and everyone is free to join the discussion. Saturday January 18 is the workshop date. It will be held at the Irving Elks Lodge in Irving, TX. The regular winter board meeting will be held the next day.

I cannot stress how important this workshop is to the well being of CASI. It is an informal gathering where we can take a close look at current issues and work for the common good. A time when all opinions count and strategy can be planned. CASI is not the perfect model by any means, so don't miss this opportunity to get your head in the mix. We are a diverse group with a common love of chili and a lot of ways to get to Terlingua. We can talk about so many issues or we can act. We have a lot of good talkers, but I am looking for some good actors and actresses. It's also not too early to start thinking about seeking a position on the 2014-2015 Board of Directors. You can also serve on one of the many committees that work to establish our policy.

By now, your pod should have been contacted by a director that has been assigned to work closely with you. Each director has been given six pods to represent in an effort to communicate more closely. I am very proud of my six pods and the interest they have shown in expressing their feelings toward CASI. The pods are CASI. You make the rules and you elect the board. We have renewed our contract with the fine folks at the Sheraton Arlington for the 2014 Great Peppers Meeting. It will be held September 5-6, 2014 in Arlington, TX. Watch for details on registration.

It is my pleasure to serve as an officer and director of CASI. Please do not hesitate to contact me with your comments at any time. May each of you have a blessed "Happy New Year!" and success in your endeavors on and off the chili trail.

Jim Ezell
President and Sponsor Chair

REFLECTIONS FROM THE ED

Happy 2014 !!!! Whether we want them or not, 2014 will bring CASI new challenges; whether we seize them or not, 2014 will bring CASI new opportunities. I hope each of us will approach the New Year with the resolve to find the opportunities hidden in each new day. So I give you my toast for the New Year: "Here's to the bright New Year and a fond farewell to the old; here's to the opportunities that are yet to come and to the memories that the New Year will provide to each of us. May our troubles be less and our blessings be more and nothing but kindness, compassion, and generosity come through our door. Cheers to a New Year and another chance for us to get it right."

The CASI Board Workshop and Winter Board Meeting will be held at the Irving Elks Lodge on January 18th & 19th. The Board invites each of our members to attend. The Winter Workshop will start at 9:00 a.m. on Saturday and will be an open forum that allows input by those in attendance. The main topic of the workshop is always the financial review and the discussion of last year's TICC and planning for this year's TICC. The Winter Board meeting will begin at 8:00 a.m. on Sunday. If you desire to speak to the Board on Sunday or have something to put on the Board agenda, please email me (CASIchiliED@gmail.com) before Monday, January 5th.

December brought us some bad weather that caused several chili cookoffs to be canceled. Be sure that if you cancel a cookoff or need to change information about a cookoff, already advertised, to contact Lee Kroencke, Upcomings Director, or myself as quick as possible. Also, please read your cookoff ad in the Terlingua Trails or upcoming calendar and be sure the information is correct. If your ad reads "contact and/or address information to follow" and the information is never updated, then it is hard for the cooks to contact you or to know where your cookoff is being held. Facebook, twitter, and instant messaging are nice, but the CASI officials need to know the facts about cookoff changes as quick as possible.

Let's continue to have Fun with our Charity events, while enjoying cooking Chili with our family and friends.

SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Happy Holidays! I hope everyone enjoys the season with their loved ones. Let this be a time to reflect on the past year and look forward to the coming year.

Scholarship applications are beginning to pour into my home but the donations and memorials are way down this year. I hope we can reward students with plenty of scholarships.

Hope to see more people take part by coming to the January Board meeting held in Irving, Texas again this year. The dates are posted on the CASI calendar.

See ya down the trail.

Nancy Hewlett

Scholarship Program Administrator

THANK YOU!

It always amazes me how helpful CASI people are and this year was no different. The Houston Crew of, Susan Armand, Molly Truitt, Melissa Pate and Kathryn Cavender along with Dusty Hudspeth and Beth Moon, made short work of folding of our Polo and Staff T's. I am fairly certain that we have NEVER had this much quality help and hope you all come back next year!

Bud Barrick, Chuck and Dorothy Spishock, you guys have been the core Wednesday registration crew that keep things running smoothly year after year– MANY THANKS! New to our Wednesday registration crew this year was Janice Miller, Kathy Mulkey and Bill Pierson sitting in as ED to pass out the Regional Referee and Great Pepper shirts. Our shirt and goodie bag runners for Wednesday were none other than the SWAMP PEOPLE – Jerry Hunt, Mack and Kelly "Buttons" Walker. GREAT JOB ALL!!

Thursday's Registration crew was made up of a perfectly paired Dru Stewart and Tonya Jester, Larry Velasquez and Steve Stuart, Eve DuMond and Molly Truitt and behind the scene shirt and goodie bag runners, Julie and Fred Weidner. Gil Hewlett was back this year to sit in as ED and hand out our Regional Referee and Great Pepper shirts as well. Lots of new faces this year who did a TERRIFIC JOB!

Friday registration volunteers are always hard to come by because everyone wants to support the Scholarship Day Events. This year we had Sunny Fichtl and Gail Edwards, Shirley Stateczny and Mayo Blair and Nancy Netardus as our ED.

Connie Collier was new to Registration as our Membership coordinator and did a fantastic job!

Connie Collier, Dana Plocheck, and Jerry Hunt did a fantastic job with Tequila Rose Dessert Contest this year. It was tough having the contest at the same time as our Rosebud Party but as always we have volunteers that go above and beyond.

Last but not least, thanks to the crew who helped set up and take down the Winners' Circle. Mayo and Ed Blair, those fajitas were top notch! Jack Windsor, Tim Collier, Darin and Tonya Jester and Dana Plocheck for getting the winners' chairs set up, escorting our winners, handing out drinks and calming down our champions before going on stage, and a number of other items that must take place as numbers are being called. You all did a tremendous job bringing this event to a close.

Thank you all for a job well done!!

Jenny Windsor

CHILI UNDER SIEGE IN AUSTIN

It appears that Texas Monthly is serious about pursuing an ousting of chili as the official state dish of Texas. They are mounting a campaign when the state legislature convenes and have published more than one article in their quest for barbecue superiority. This is an opportunity for chili aficionados to unite and take a stand. We will keep you posted on our campaign.

Jim Ezell

The Politics of Chili

by Paul Burka
 Sun December 8, 2013 11:26 pm

In the current issue of TEXAS MONTHLY I wrote a piece called “Bowl of Dread” recounting how much I dislike chili—and how disappointed I still am at the Sixty-fifth Legislature, which declared it the state dish more than 35 years ago. Everyone knows that brisket is far superior. But as I lamented, perhaps the barbecue lobby had been caught napping?

I had assumed that my story would end the debate over the relative merits of chili and barbecue for all time. But no. My epistle was met with a rebuttal by the Chili Appreciation Society International. President Jim Ezell writes:

The “Bowl of Dread” article in your December issue truly maligns a wonderful Texas tradition, even if meant sarcastically. Mr. Burka does not realize that chili is Texas. Nobody ever said chili is “fine cuisine”. It is the frontier, the spirit and a dish your momma used to make. Like the “Beans and Cornbread” it has been with us through thick and thin.

You are correct that the original Terlingua chili event was a publicity stunt, but as we approach our Fiftieth Anniversary in a few years, it has not diminished in significance or recognition as an iconic annual ritual. We all have every respect for a good brisket, but there is certainly the precedent by the legislature in naming chili the official state dish that should not be trifled with.

Chili heads come together in all shapes, sizes, religious and political pursuits.

I appreciate the letter and am willing to let bygones be bygones. I invite Mr. Ezell to join me for lunch at Franklin Barbecue, where we can spend our time in line in conversation about our respective dishes, then, hours later no doubt, sit down to eat and let the true culinary icon win.

In the meantime, I think Mr. Ezell should know that TEXAS MONTHLY is intent on righting the wrong that was committed way back in 1977. We are going to lead the charge to replace chili with barbecue as the official state dish in 2015 when the 84th Legislature convenes. I have no doubt that true statesmen will reveal themselves this time around and make this state proud.

BEST GLAMPING

CONGRATULATIONS TO MARVIN AND LAURA

CASI Sponsor Marvin Bottera weds fiancé Laura Baldwin on Dec 15.

Congratulations to this wonderful couple that have supported CASI and TICC with their presence and products from Western Spirits: Bird Dog Whiskey, Sam Houston, and KRU 82 Vodka. They are a great part of our sponsor family.

DONATION TO WEST VOLUNTEER FIRE DEPARTMENT

SHOWMANSHIP AT TICC

FUN IN THE DESERT

Cooking With CASI

Greetings!

Thanks to everyone for submitting your cookoffs early. We have seen dramatic improvement in submitting information timely, and as usual CASI members are rising to the occasion. January 15th is the deadline for submitting March cookoffs, so continue to check your calendars closely and connect with your promoters and referees.

An advantage for submitting cookoffs is to have an electronic trail of your submission. That is a very easy process when you submit your cookoff using www.casichili.net

As the chili year winds to a close I encourage you to take a look at how you can grow CASI chili in your area. Maybe all it takes is a phone call of encouragement.

Maybe reaching out and contacting someone you think would enjoy chili charity and fun. This year has been a year with plenty of change, and lots of new younger members are attracted to CASI. We are so blessed to have them, and we are excited to have the additional competition.

Congratulations to everyone reading this and involved in CASI cookoffs. Your investment of time, enthusiasm, competitive spirit, and adventure is infectious, and I thank you for your involvement with CASI whether you are a cook, a promoter, a judge, a volunteer, or just enjoy the company of enthusiastic chili heads. All the best to you in finding what you are looking for in CASI chili, whether it's points, camaraderie, contribution, entertainment, education, energy, or all of the above.

See you down the chili trail,

Lee Kroencke

Horn Toad Roundup & Regional Chili Cookoff

Saturday, February 1, 2014 - Rankin, TX

Now that the Terlingua dust is behind us, it's once again breedin' time for the Horn Toads. The mad scientists aka Doc, Bucky, Tim and Bro. Dave, have been working on some new fangled gene therapy for the stud toads (bet that was interesting...wonder if Sotol was involved again??) Rumor has it that Kyle kept 'em all fed during their sequester, with some of that famous internet brisket he keeps tellin' us about...Anyways, it's gonna be quite interesting to see just what kind of toads are hatched this year after the round up.

It's soon gonna be time to roundup all of the Horn Toads and head 'em on down the trail to Rankin. Wanna be sure you all know, at the end of the trail in Rankin, we're gonna have a big Chili Cookoff to celebrate and we hope to see YOU there the first weekend in February, 2014! There's a mighty fine bronze Toad at stake for the winner and top 3 places in chili and 1st in show automatically qualify for Terlingua 2014!

Chili is $20 and turn in is 1PM, chili grind only. Beans is $5 and turn in is noon with a 50/30/20 pay out. There will be a lot of activity north of the CCO at the new Murphy park as they are dedicating the new park. The CCO will be south of that event but the public will be wandering thru the CCO event area. Pop up's can be placed on the grass area behind the parking space for each vehicle. Please bring fire extinguisher as they are required. Each cooking spot will be 12x12 with parking in the parking lot space. Plenty of space behind the parking spots for show events. Murphy road is under construction so drive slowly and if asked tell them you are there for the CCO. Rest Room's will be in the city hall. Free Quarter Page Ad to CASI Pods, State, Regional and International Opens

As a CASI Pod you are required to put on a pod cookoff once a year. To help you advertise your pod cookoff we allow each pod to place one quarter page ad in the Terlingua Trails, each year, free of charge. This ad should run the month before your cookoff occurs. Should you decide that you need an ad larger than a quarter page we will simply bill you for the difference in price. This ad should not be confused with the article advertising your cookoff in the "Cooking with CASI Calendar" section in the Terlingua Trails. That article will start to run as soon as you request your cookoff packet and will run until your cookoff occurs.
