BACK TO BACK WINS FOR TICC CHAMPION

The Indiana Pepper Pod again hosted its annual Hoosier Great Pepper's New Year's Eve Chili Cookoff. Cooks from Indiana, Illinois, Tennessee, and Alabama cooked and rang in 2014 together along with current TICC Championship Brian Spencer, and his wife Kim. Chili turn-in was at 10 PM, and at the stroke of 12 Midnight, Woodbridge by Robert Mondavi Champagne flowed into everyone glasses as we welcomed 2014. Keeping up with his title, Brain Spencer rocked Indiana and won this year's CCO. On New Year's Day, red eyed and somewhat bushy tailed, we fired

New Year's Day 2014 brought old acquaintances and friends-to-be together for the 10th Annual Bearly Chili Cook-off. Twenty-one cooks representing 4 pods from Virginia, Maryland, and North Carolina converged on Palymra, VA for this annual cooks, friends, and family tradition. This Capitol Pod cook-off is held outdoors rain, snow, sleet, or shine. Old Man Winter took a

WINTER BLUES, RED CHILI NEWS

It's that time of year when the weather can really get you down. However, a good bowl of red and the fellowship of chili cooks will always brighten your day. We are a small but dedicated group of enthusiasts who cater to a wide world of people that love chili. It brings back memories. Where did you first taste chili? Who prepared it and how was it served? A humble and simple brew made to your liking and varying by region. We are the Chili Appreciation Society. Our mission statement is to spread the word and promote red chili. We are also a 501 (c) 3 tax exempt non- profit corporation dedicated to raising money for charity and providing scholarships.

To accomplish these goals we need leadership. Leadership at the local level through our individual cooks and pods. Leadership to pass on our trade to younger cooks and influence future cuisine. Our Board of Directors faces many challenges in containing the politics, regulating our events, maintaining financial stability and planning for our future. For instance, an attack has been mounted in of all places, Texas, to dethrone chili as the legislative designated "State Dish"; we will be watching this issue closely. The Executive Committee of the Board of Directors will have four of the five current holders up for election this year. There could be a large gap if competent candidates do not step up at this time. It is early in the year and it is a year of great challenge. Maybe too early to grade our current management, but not too early to contemplate change. Each current director has been assigned six pods to work closely with and expedite any member issues. I hope you will work with your representative to make this a meaningful effort.

We are coming off our Winter Workshop and the Winter Board of Directors Meeting. The workshop is the most important gathering of the year, in my opinion. We review the past year and set plans and goals for the next. By the time the Great Peppers Meeting rolls around in September, it is too late to make many significant changes. We are six weeks out from TICC at the time and too focused on our showcase event to seriously enforce change. We need change and I don't mean healthcare. Our model needs to be tweaked and a more realistic approach taken in many areas. The growing expense, government red tape, tremendous liabilities, and maturation of our organization make this necessary. Needless to say, everyone will not agree on everything put under the microscope.

I have served CASI many years and met countless friends in this chili world. There is much good in our organization, but a lot of apathy in our membership.

I hope all of you celebrated a Happy New Year and are hard at work spreading the gospel of CASI. I always like to equate TICC to the Super Bowl, as they both originated the same year. TICC XLVIII anyone?

REFLECTIONS FROM THE ED

My article this month will truly be a "Ramblings from Ricardo" covering different items. First is the 2014 Great Peppers meeting. The GPM will be held again at the Sheraton Arlington Hotel on September 5th and 6th. There are Texas Rangers' baseball games scheduled for this weekend so everyone needs to make their special room rate of $99 reservations as soon as possible. Call 1-800-325-3535 or 1-817-261-8200 or use the website: www.starwoodmeeting.com/StarGroupsWeb/res?id=1401070706&key=6A5F8

Continuing with the GPM meeting, this is a year for the "adjustments" to the CASI rules. Each CASI cook should be discussing with their Great Pepper or Pod on any proposed rule adjustments needed. Do not wait until the last moment, your Great Pepper can send me a copy of the proposals anytime starting now, but the deadline is Monday, June 2, 2014. This will allow time to get the proposals back out to the Great Peppers for review by all Pods.

Next subject is the 2014 TICC Poster. This is the 25th anniversary of the CASI ranch and we are looking for a special background for this year's poster to represent this milestone. So put on your creative hat, talk to that special creative friend, or maybe have a contest with your local high school art class to come up with an artistic representation of the ranch for the poster.

My last subject this month is "change." Change is a business reality and organizations must continually adapt to their environments to stay competitive or risk becoming obsolete. The CASI Board has to make some tough decisions as to the CASI business models/cultures that have been developed since the first Great Peppers Meeting in 1980. I continued communications with the Great Peppers in January with a quick survey and will continue to have open communications in the future about ideas that are presented to the Board. This is your organization and you as members and cooks need to have an open mind that some things must change for the organization to grow or even stay the same. Inflation, cost increases, decline in donations, and spending increases have led to the need to review all of our organization's business models and culture. The Board can make simple adjustments to revenue and spending to correct any minor financial shortfalls; but the organization needs your ideas of what you want this organization to be or become. And these ideas start at the "grassroots" of the Pods increasing membership, sponsorship, and donations to make this non-profit organization a World Class Sanctioning Event and Charitable organization. Thank you for listening to my ramblings and I encourage you to "be involved" in the needed changes.

TICC POSTER CONTEST

It's time once again to get creative and start thinking about a poster design for the 2014 Terlingua International Chili Championship (TICC). This is the 25th Anniversary of the Ranch and CASI is looking for a unique, creative design that embodies the essence of Rancho CASI de los Chisos and CASI. Poster deadline this year is Monday, JUNE 9, 2014.

Poster Guidelines

When designing the piece of art, please keep in mind that the poster is a vital element to the success of the event. The artwork chosen will not only become the official poster of the Terlingua International Chili Championship, but it will also possibly add to the development of the retail merchandise.

Artwork must incorporate the following elements:
Name of Event: Terlingua International Chili Championship
Annual Designation: 48th Annual
Location: Held at Rancho CASI de los Chisos
Date of Event: November 1, 2014
Incorporate 25th Anniversary of Rancho CASI de los Chisos.

Artist should keep in mind that the Sponsor Logos, CASI logos, pictures of the previous year's winners and names of the current Board members will be included in the finished poster.

Artwork or photo must be original design, no copyrights, with the use of bold colors.

Actual sizes of the finished posters are 19" X 25" and 11" X 17". Submissions do not need to be that size but they need to maintain that proportion. The 11" x 17" poster is an informational poster. Copies of previous years' posters are available in PDF format upon request. These posters may be used as a guideline for some of the content required in the design.

The artist should design an initial draft of the poster artwork. If selected, the artist will work with CASI staff in making changes and developing the final piece.

Artwork must be camera ready. If selected, artist agrees to relinquish ownership of artwork.

If selected, artwork becomes the sole property of the Chili Appreciation Society International, Inc. The winning designer will receive credit with their name included on the final product.

If selected, artist agrees to sign and number fifty (50) prints within 30 days of request.

Submission deadline is Monday, June 9, 2014. Entries must be emailed to Richard Knight, Executive Director, at casichilied@gmail.com.

SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Hello Chiliheads,

Well…things are slow here. Donations are just not coming in to us! I have had no donations since TICC! This is critical. I do not know what slowed the donations but something did.

The scholarship deadline will be here shortly. Great Peppers be sure to get the applications to me by Feb. 1, 2014. My committee has a lot of work to do for the next two months.

The CASA Fiesta label program is going to continue to run. Please mail me receipts or labels of CASA Fiesta products. Remember they are helping us! Around Dallas many of the Kroger stores are now carrying their products.

Please make your donations today!

TEXAS LADIES STATE and the CASI SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM 2014

HAPPY NEW YEAR! It's that time again – time to think about the Texas Ladies State CCO and your individual contributions to the CASI Scholarship Program for 2014. Texas Ladies State CCO weekend will be held on April 12, 2014. Last year we raised right at $2,800.00 and we were able to fund one technical school scholarship or a little more than ½ of an academic scholarship through the CASI Scholarship Program. We should really give ourselves a pat on the back as we are increasing the total dollar amount raised each year. Let's see if our fourth year will follow the tradition we have set. We can do it! The deadline for your 2014 contributions will be April 1 this year. In February and March email reminders will go to last year's participants and we will post a notice on Richard Knight's Ramblings from Ricardo's Rancho de los Armadillo blog. A contribution form can be found at the bottom of this article, will also be an attachment to the emails, and will be available to print from the blog. Please feel free to encourage your friends to participate as an open invitation is extended to anyone who may be interested in joining the group and helping to strengthen and guarantee the future success of the CASI Scholarship Program. Please call or email one of the contacts listed below if anyone has questions or wants further information. We need to add all new names to the group list as soon as possible. Thank you.

SHOWMANSHIP MATTERS!

Howdy, y'all! Hope everyone's holidays were happy and peaceful, and that all journeys were safe. I also hope that no one's garbage disposal stopped up, blew a connection, and spewed pieces of Brussels sprouts all over everything under the sink. I mean, I like Brussels sprouts, but definitely not that way!

So what does a minor kitchen emergency have to do with CASI Showmanship? Well, as I mopped up water and Brussels sprouts fragments, I started thinking about all the times during Showmanship that something unexpected has occurred, and how sometimes we have to react quickly, adapt to changes, and pull something magical out of our funny hats. Sometimes we have to run and get ice because a flagpole fell on somebody's head. Sometimes we have to change our decorations because it's too windy, or try to find a way to make a game more appealing to the audience. Because the Show must go on, no matter what obstacles we might face in the moment.

This is where planning, organization, and a cool head under pressure can pull your buns out of the fire. Especially if you are showing by yourself, it's really important to think about what might happen and try to have strategies to help you overcome. For example, pack supplies to repair your decorations in case the wind blows like crazy. Or bring an extra prop, accessory, or costume in case something breaks or you end up wearing your lunch.

We all know that putting on a great show is a lot of work, but it's also a lot of fun – interacting with the crowd, letting your hair down and acting silly for a couple of hours. And Showmanship Matters! because the audience needs to be entertained, and that's what we're there for.

Next month, I'll start a discussion about interference during show, beginning with what the rule book has to say and practical suggestions for what to do when you feel your show is being interfered with. Please get in touch with me if you have any questions or comments on this subject, and I'll include as many as space allows.

In the meantime, keep up the good work, and don't forget to wear your funny hat!

KATY, TX - 15TH ANNUAL KATY ELKS UNCLE RONNIE COOKOFF held January 4, 2014, was a great day of chili, beans and salsa. Nancy Draper and Kevin Foley did a great job of organizing and running the two-day event and they had an abundance of local Elks judging everything. The Elks lodge also had their annual turkey shoot which always brings a lot of excitement and fun to those participating. The weather played in our favor this year and on Saturday we didn't have to fight rain, wind or sleet like in the past. On Sunday it was colder than usual and the breeze made it feel worse so we got approval to cook inside and we all appreciated the warmth and camaraderie it allowed.

Cooking With CASI

Greetings!

Thanks to everyone for submitting your cookoffs early. We have seen dramatic improvement in submitting information timely, and as usual CASI members are rising to the occasion. February 15th is the deadline for submitting April cookoffs, so continue to check your calendars closely and connect with your promoters and referees.

An advantage for submitting cookoffs is to have an electronic trail of your submission. That is a very easy process when you submit your cookoff using www.casichili.net

As the chili year winds to a close I encourage you to take a look at how you can grow CASI chili in your area. Maybe all it takes is a phone call of encouragement. Maybe reaching out and contacting someone you think would enjoy chili charity and fun. This year has been a year with plenty of change, and lots of new younger members are attracted to CASI. We are so blessed to have them, and we are excited to have the additional competition.

Congratulations to everyone reading this and involved in CASI cookoffs. Your investment of time, enthusiasm, competitive spirit, and adventure is infectious, and I thank you for your involvement with CASI whether you are a cook, a promoter, a judge, a volunteer, or just enjoy the company of enthusiastic chili heads. All the best to you in finding what you are looking for in CASI chili, whether it's points, camaraderie, contribution, entertainment, education, energy, or all of the above.

See you down the chili trail,

Lee Kroencke

Free Quarter Page Ad to CASI Pods, State, Regional and International Opens

As a CASI Pod you are required to put on a pod cookoff once a year. To help you advertise your pod cookoff we allow each pod to place one quarter page ad in the Terlingua Trails, each year, free of charge. This ad should run the month before your cookoff occurs. Should you decide that you need an ad larger than a quarter page we will simply bill you for the difference in price. This ad should not be confused with the article advertising your cookoff in the "Cooking with CASI Calendar" section in the Terlingua Trails. That article will start to run as soon as you request your cookoff packet and will run until your cookoff occurs.
