

From the Champ: The Buzzards Soar—Again!

By BECKY ALLEN, George West, Texas—After a month of looking at the big pepper on the top of my kitchen island, I think it's finally beginning to sink in that I really did win TICC 2021! I also got a cool CASI TICC Champion banner a couple of weeks ago, so it must really be true. Until it happens to you, you have no idea how hard it is to wrap your head around such a huge win.

We spent Thanksgiving at the VASA Pod Cook-off in Victoria. Our Thanksgiving dinner was delicious but sadly we had the smallest crowd I ever remember. I'm guessing that many were celebrating with their families after not being able to for so long. I hope our crowd will be back next year. The weather did not cooperate with us either. The good news is we upped their annual rainfall total! Three days full of various competitions made for a very busy weekend. I haven't monitored a judging table in quite a while so I was pleased to be asked to monitor the final table on Saturday. I asked Kathie Cieloncki to assist me and we made a great team! Little did I know that those judges would score my chili right into first place!

After cooking this cook-off for many years, it was my first time to ever win! And, Brent was the 2020 VASA Pod Champion! Then the funny thing was, we sponsored the 1st place trophy. I guess you just never know who might win.

We'll be spending the next few weeks at home for the holidays, then looking forward to getting on the chili trail. Right now we're hoping to go to Bastrop for the SOT Pod Cook-off and then back to Terlingua for the West Texas Regional. If you have a chili cook-off you'd like me (and the 2017 Champion) to attend, please let me know.

I wish you peace, love, and joy this holiday season. May you spend it with family and friends enjoying good food and laughter. And never forget the reason for the season. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

To meet the cookoff advertising requirement, all upcoming cookoffs must be publicized in the Trails in the month prior to the event OR be approved and appear on the official calendar 30 days prior to the date of the cookoff. When a cookoff is cancelled, the Events Coordinator must be notified in order to keep the website current.

From the CASI ED...

Happy New Year to Everyone. I am writing this letter a few days to the promise of Christmas. As 2021 comes to an end, it brings a time to reflect on what a great year 2021 was with gratitude. It was a year with its own unique challenges. It was also a year of opportunities, dreams, and ambitions. As I reflect on 2021, I saw many cookoffs once again take place while others continued to hit hard stops. Many of our Pod, State, and Regional Championships were once again on the calendar. Thank you to all who coordinated these events and to the devoted chili cooks who made the cook-offs successful and possible for everyone to enjoy. These cook-offs brought longtime friends and family back together again to enjoy a common weekend pastime. We love doing all these things in the name of Chili, Charity, and Fun. It is you who defines and makes our organization so great and admired by many.

We are now looking forward into 2022. It will be enthusiastic and exciting as we set our intentions, goals, and dreams. Not only for ourselves personally, but as an organization. The first order of business for your Board of Directors will be the Winter Board Meeting. The date and location have been selected. The Garland Elks Lodge in Garland, Texas has graciously opened their house to host the Winter Board Meeting the weekend of January 22-23, 2022. Draft agendas for the Saturday workshop and Sunday board meeting are currently being worked on. These will be shared with all the Great Peppers and posted via our social media pages in the coming weeks prior to the meeting. Remember, everyone is welcome to attend and hear the dialogue as CASI business is conducted in real time. Be on the watch for other news regarding the winter meeting and other important announcements relevant to CASI in the coming months.

It is encouraging to see many new cook-offs hitting the calendar. There are many cook-offs still attempting to have a comeback after the last two years. It is comforting to see new venues open to offer cooks from all over the chance to be with friends, make new ones, benefit a charity, and achieve those points towards TICC qualification.

I look forward to 2022 and the opportunities it brings. In the words of Albert Einstein, "Learn from yesterday, live for today, and hope for tomorrow.". CASI's future is bright, and together we will shine with every pot of chili made!

Again, from Kim and I; Happy New Year! May the New Year bring you happiness, peace, and prosperity in 2022!

BRAND

GETS YOUR CHILI COOKIN'!

The image features a large, light green ceramic bowl filled with a hearty chili. The chili is composed of ground meat, diced tomatoes, and onions, all coated in a rich, red sauce. A bottle of Louisiana Hot Sauce is prominently displayed in the foreground, partially submerged in the chili. The bottle has a yellow label with the brand name "LOUISIANA" in large, bold letters, followed by "THE PERFECT BRAND" and "HOT SAUCE". Below this, a red circle contains the text "ONE DROP DOES IT®". The bottom of the label indicates "NET 12 FL OZ (354 mL)". The background is a vibrant yellow with a repeating pattern of red and orange scalloped shapes. In the top left corner, there is a circular logo with the text "THE ORIGINAL 'LOUISIANA' BRAND HOT SAUCE" and a red circle.

Chili Year 2021–2022

Greeting from your TallyMaster. For those of you that sent me gifts this holiday season (you got your paperwork correct and submitted on time) I thank you. There is still time for those of you who forgot to send me something good! PLEASE send in your paperwork. It's not fair to the cooks to keep looking for those points. Qualifying numbers are sent monthly in the order the paperwork is received. What will help me immensely; legible writing, using the correct form, submitting complete paperwork and mailing to the correct address (Brian is no longer TallyMaster). If you are not sending it to Hobbs, New Mexico it's not getting verified.

TIP of the Month- When submitting the paperwork don't hit the back button, it will lock you out.

If you have any questions please call or email.

VASA Pod Celebrates at 40th Annual Pod Cook-off

VASA Pod celebrated its 40th annual Pod Cook-off at the Victoria Coletto Lake RV Resort over Thanksgiving weekend. Several gathered on Thanksgiving to enjoy a delicious spread of fried turkey provided by the Pod and assorted sides and desserts brought by chili cooks.

The group was small but the food was bountiful. Friday brought in more cooks and the competition began! A total of five categories were on the schedule and the entries did not disappoint. We ended the day with CASI chili and John Gray came out the big winner!

Saturday dawned cloudy and dreary but chili cooks don't let that stop them! 34 cooks came out to compete despite the rain. Following in the footsteps yet again of her husband, Brent Allen, the 2020 VASA Pod Champion, our 2021 TICC Champion Becky Allen came out on top!

The Pod gives a trophy for farthest traveled and this year that distinction went to Ricky Bobby and Cherry Powell who traveled from Shreveport, LA to cook chili-over 360 miles!

The Pod also honored our immediate past Great Pepper, Dianna Hoy, with a special appreciation trophy.

Make plans to join us next May over Memorial Day weekend for our Spring Fling!

Make No Mistake: “Setting the Table”

By Bill Pierson
Senior Referee
Volume 6, Number 1

As I write this column, the Holidays are rapidly approaching. So I wanted a subject without drama, in keeping with the Holiday spirit. This column concerns Rule II.C, and I call it, “Setting the Table.”

The rule dealing with the quantity of cups advancing from one round to the next is quite straight forward and has been around for a long time. However, it can involve some mathematics so people can get confused from time to time. I do get questions. Another great feature about this rule is that it is quite flexible. It allows several ways of doing the tables and still be in compliance with the rule.

Rule “C” tells us a couple things: First, if there are enough chilies to require multiple rounds of judging, the cups must be equally distributed among the tables. By “equally” it is understood that the number of cups may be different by one. We cannot have one table with 9 cups and another with 16 cups. The other thing Rule “C” tells us is that a minimum of 50% of the cups must advance to the next round. If that 50% number should result in advancing a fraction of a cup, you round up.

Rule C.1 reiterates the 50% requirement for the first, or preliminary round. In 2021 the average CASI cookoff had 25 chilies to judge. Since equally dividing 25 cups would be messy, we would use one table of 13 cups and another of 12 cups. Advancing 50% of the cups would mean 7 cups from one table and 6 from the other. Now, there are some people who feel that the same number should come off each table, and that is okay. Remember, the 50% number is a minimum. Let’s say you had a little larger cookoff of 40 chilies to judge, now you have options. You could use four tables with 10 cups each, or three tables with 13 cups on two tables and 14 cups on the other. Either way is correct. The four tens is more efficient, but available judges and space will determine which way you go.

The next section addresses additional rounds of judging, and is where your math skills come into play. But no matter how you divide them up, equal cup distribution on the tables is required. Plus, at least 50% of that round’s cups must advance to the next round.

Now, in Rule C.3 we get to the final table. The first thing this rule tells us is that there must be a minimum of 14 cups advancing to the final table. Fourteen? We want to give as many cooks as possible a chance to win or place in the cookoff. It is the consensus of people I have talked to that a higher number of cups should go to the final table. However, 14 is the minimum, and if you follow that, you will be in the right. It used to be that the 20 cup maximum for a final table was a hard and fast rule. However, there are a number of valid reasons that a higher number would find their way to the final table. Several years ago this rule was amended to give the head judge a little more latitude in this area. But, make no mistake, don’t get carried away and put a number of cups approaching 30 on the final table. You want to keep your judges happy, not make them sick. I’m going to leave the “adequate representation” of chilies for large cookoffs alone because I don’t know what that is.

The final part of this rule deals with breaking ties. This is where math skills and good judgement come into play. All your planning for table setup can turn to poop if you get a significant number of ties on a table or tables. There is a common misconception that all ties advance. No, only ties for the predetermined number of cups advance. e.g., if you had planned on advancing seven cups from a table, only the cups tied with seventh place are affected by this rule. If there is a tie at second or third, doesn’t matter, they are just two cups. Also, the ties on one table have no bearing on ties on another table.

I hope you all have had, or are having a terrific holiday season. And have made a resolution to cook more CASI chili.

UPCOMING EVENTS

CASI

Some people have contacted me about their cookoffs not being in the Trails. Cookoffs must be submitted before the 15th of the month in the month before the Cookoff date to be listed in Upcoming Events. Remember, to meet the cookoff advertising requirement, upcoming cookoffs must be publicized in the Terlingua Trails in the month prior to the event OR be approved and appear on the official calendar 30 days prior to the date of the cookoff. The website always is the most current list of events.

You may enter your information at www.casichili.net or you can complete the Upcoming Cookoff Information form found in the Trails and send it by mail to me at CASI Events, 802 Horizon Dr., Murphy, TX 75094, or by email to casievent@casichili.net.

If you have any questions you can reach me at 214-802-8194. Be sure to use the form online to submit or the form located in the Trails. The older versions do not have all the necessary information. Often email addresses, telephone numbers and addresses are left off and I must have them.

When you do not request a rule book or tickets, you will not be mailed a packet. You will instead receive an email with the necessary forms for the cookoff. Please print out the forms and be sure to fill in your event number, date, name and place.

Free Quarter Page Ad for CASI Pod, State, Regional, and National Open Cookoffs

All CASI Pods are required to conduct a pod cookoff once a year. To help advertise your pod cookoff, you may run a quarter-page ad in the month your cookoff occurs. This courtesy is also extended to State, Regional, and National Open cookoffs. If you want an ad larger than a quarter page, or you wish to run it more than once, we will bill you for the difference in price. (This ad should not be confused with the article advertising your cookoff in the “Upcoming Events” section. That article starts to run in the next issue after your cookoff is registered and continues until your cookoff occurs.)

EVERY COOKOFF RECEIVING A FREE AD IS REQUIRED BY CASI POLICY TO SUBMIT AN ARTICLE AND PHOTOS TO THE TERLINGUA TRAILS AFTER THE EVENT. IF NO NEWS ABOUT THE COOKOFF IS SUBMITTED WITHIN 60 DAYS AFTER THE EVENT, IT WILL BE BILLED FOR THE FULL COST OF THE AD.

SUBMISSION DEADLINE is the 15th of EACH MONTH.
