Volume 35 Issue 5

It's Friends of CASI Time!

The Friends of CASI (FoC) sponsorship was established for individuals, Pods, and other groups or businesses to have an opportunity to become TICC underwriters with a cost less than our elite sponsors. The Jalapeño donation level is $500 to $999 and the Habanero donation level is $1000 to $2499.

As we all know, putting on a major event such as TICC and maintaining the Ranch throughout the year would not be possible without the generous donations of our membership and sponsors. To continue to hold and maintain an event second to none, CASI needs your support. Friends of CASI has steadily grown into one of the major underwriters of TICC. Friends of CASI funds provide money for all of the awards, including trophies, jackets and chairs. In addition, they have funded the Big Bend High School Salutatorian Scholarship. Any remaining funds, go into Ranch improvements. A major Ranch improvement project currently underway is the Dark Sky initiative adopted by Brewster County.

The FoC sponsorship is a great way to show your support of CASI and all the great things this organization has accomplished and will continue to accomplish in years to come. A $500 sponsorship includes benefits for two people. An additional person can be added for $250. Several individuals have pooled their money to join FoC and turned their Jalapeño Level sponsorship into a Habanero Level sponsorship.

2022 Friends of CASI benefits include: Jalapeño Level $500–$999

- Recognition on the TICC poster and in the Terlingua Trails each month
- FoC sponsor polo shirt ($500 level 2 shirts, $750 3 shirts)
- FoC recognition Plaque
- FoC Reception at TICC
- TICC wrist bands ($500 level is 2 bands, each $250 additional band) Wrist band for admission into the ranch and complimentary concessions at the Main Bar and Krazy Flats.

- FoC recognition Plaque
- FoC Reception at TICC
- TICC wrist bands ($1000 level is 4 bands, each $250 additional band) Wrist band for admission into the ranch and complimentary concessions at the Main Bar and Krazy Flats.
- Annual window decal with the FoC logo
- Monthly electronic copy of the Terlingua Trails
- Photo opportunity with the TICC first place winner and/or trophy

Goodbye April!

Hello May!

The month of May has once again
circled its way back around the sun. May is a significant month of the year. It marks the halfway point to TICC. In just six short months from

May 6th, we will once again meet at Rancho CASI de los Chisos for the 55th Annual Terlingua International Chili Championship. Planning for this year's TICC is well under way.

Entertainment and sound have been secured and your board of directors is currently in talks on the theme for the golf cart parade.

Springtime always seems to be the peak season for cookoffs to start kicking off.

This year is looking even better than 2021 in terms of more cook-offs occurring.

Some established cook-offs are scheduled for the first time since 2020. It is also a wonderful thing to see so many cookoffs celebrate their 50th Anniversary Milestone this year. It is also very encouraging to see May's cookoff statistics compared to last year. It is a good sign of more cook-offs and more cooks getting out to enjoy our favorite weekend pastime. This is something to get excited about as we gain momentum back to pre-pandemic times.

The date and location of the Summer Board Meeting is set. This will be a one-day meeting on Saturday, July 9, 2022.

Hosted by the Houston Elks Lodge #151 in Stafford, Texas. This is an open meeting for all members to attend and witness CASI business being conducted in real time.

The summer board meeting will start with a work session followed by the formal business meeting. Plans for the Great Pepper's Meeting and TICC will be the main areas of focus as we head into the last half of the chili year.

The month of May is also the time of year to start thinking about Pod credentials. The deadline to have these submitted to me is August 10th.

The deadline for Director applications is two months away. These need to be submitted to be sent in by July 1st. As always, we never know until the last minute of July 1st who is running.

If you aspire to someday run for the Board of Directors, why wait? Why put it off any longer?
It is truly a rewarding experience with a lot of wonderful memories made while serving our wonderful organization.

You can certainly tell the halfway mark for springtime is the beginning of some very busy months ahead. Even as a new first year ED, I am working to be ahead of this wave of planning. As always, should you find yourself needing anything, I am only a phone call away.

Chili Year 2021–2022

Greetings from your TallyMaster. I would like to thank everyone that has submitted results in a timely fashion. It is not fair to the cooks to keep looking for those points. Qualifying numbers are sent monthly in the order the paperwork is received. What will help me immensely; legible writing, using the correct form, submitting complete paperwork and mailing to the correct address. If you are not sending it to Hobbs, New Mexico it's not getting verified. If you are struggling to submit results through the casichili.net page, please feel free to reach out to me.

If you have any questions please call or email.

55th Annual TICC Poster and T-shirt Design Contest

It is time once again to get creative and start thinking about artwork designs to promote and commemorate the 2022 Terlingua International Chili Championship (TICC). This will be the 55th TICC and CASI is looking for unique, creative designs that embody the essence of the TICC and CASI. The deadline to submit your artwork designs is Monday, June 13, 2022.

Poster Guidelines

When designing the art, please keep in mind that the poster is a vital element to the success of the event. The chosen artwork will not only become the official poster of the Terlingua International Chili Championship, but may also be used to develop retail merchandise such as T-shirts and hoodies. Artwork must incorporate the following elements:

Name of Event: Terlingua International Chili Championship Annual Designation: 55th Annual Location: Held at Rancho CASI de los Chisos
Date of Event: November 5, 2022
Artist should keep in mind that the Sponsor logos, CASI logos, pictures of the previous year’s winners and names of the current Board members will be included in the finished poster.
Artwork and/or photos used must be original designs, no copyrights, with the use of bold colors.
Actual sizes of the finished posters are 18”x24” and 11”x17”. Artwork does not need to be that size, but needs to work within those proportions. The 11”x17” poster is an informational poster.

Copies of previous years’ posters are available in digital format upon request. These posters may be used as a guideline for some of the content required in the design.
The winning artist will work with CASI staff in making requested edits or changes to develop the final version of their design. Artwork must be digital or camera ready. If selected, artist agrees to relinquish ownership of artwork.
If selected, artwork becomes the sole property of the Chili Appreciation Society International, Inc. The winning designer will receive credit with their name included on the final products.

If selected, artist agrees to sign and number fifty prints within 30 days of request.
Remember, the submission deadline is Monday, June 13, 2022. Multiple submissions are encouraged. Entries must be emailed to Brian Spencer, Executive Director, at briancasied@casichili.net.

The Champ: Weather? Be Careful What You Wish For!

Well, in the last article I wished for Spring, but most days it seems we skipped right over that and straight into summer! Especially when it comes to Spring rain showers. I know some of you have had rain, often in the form of severe storms, but many of us are deep into a drought with no end in sight. Whatever your weather, I hope you're having a great season and cooking lots of chili!

There has certainly not been a drought of chili cook-offs to choose from. One weekend last month we had five cook-offs within about a 150-mile radius of us! While I'm thrilled to see so many cook-offs back on the calendar, having that many at the same time dilutes the attendance at all of them, thus diluting the money raised for charity. Please keep that in mind when scheduling a cook-off, as we want to raise as much as we can for our charities. Just my two cents worth.

Since the last issue of the Trails I have been quite busy! We cooked at Sutherland Springs in mid-March. It's always a small cook-off, but this year in particular we struggled to get our 15 on Saturday. We even pressed Scotty into cooking a pot and he took 4th place! The next weekend was Men's State in Granite Shoals. Craig Schlicke and his crew did an awesome job, including feeding us great meals! The mayor and city are so welcoming to us and we appreciate their hospitality. Obviously, I wasn't there to cook, but to support the guys on our team. We were lucky enough to have two of them place - Butch Cieliencki 5th and John Gray 4th. Congratulations to Jimmy Rather of Hobbs, NM who took 1st Place Chili, and to Larry Walton, the Texas Men's Champion!

From there we ventured a whole three miles away from home for a steak cook-off at the Live Oak County Airport park. We were fortunate to have Brent take 3rd place and Diana Klade brought home 1st place! After that, it was a short turnaround for Texas Ladies State (TLS) in Seguin. The weather could not have been nicer for that cook-off. I thought it always rained at Texas Ladies State, but it didn't this year. I guess that was in part because of the aforementioned drought, but whatever the reason, it made for some very happy ladies! 153 ladies competed and one member of our Buzzard Bar Cooking Team (BBCT) made it to the stage - TWICE! Congratulations to that BBCT member Kathie Cieliencki on her 21st Place Chili and 3rd Place Show. Also, a huge congrats to our new TLS Champion, Kathy Hudson!

After the announcements, we celebrated my birthday with a big party at our BBCT camp. Thank you to everyone who came by to celebrate with me and a huge thanks to all the BBCT girls for the food and decorations!

We're enjoying Easter weekend off, and even the next weekend too. Then there is First Shot in Gonzales (new date and location) and then the big Howdy Roo! It too is in a new location and we're looking forward to seeing that area of the park.

The end of May brings the Memorial Day weekend and our VASA Pod Spring Fling Chili Cook-off. If you don't have plans for the holiday weekend, come spend it in Victoria with us. Bring your kids too, as we have a Junior cook-off as well. June will be a busy month as well, as we will be traveling to Joplin, MO for the MidWest Regional Cook-off.

Looking forward to that for sure!

Please be sure to let me know if you have a cook-off coming up that you'd like me to attend. I try to go where I can, but I don't always have every cook-off on my radar so feel free to invite me and see if I can get it on my calendar. Looking forward to seeing you all out on the chili trail, and I hope your number is called last!

CASI Chili and the Super Bowl

By Ted Fichtl

There are still some CASI cooks around that know that there is an historic connection between the NFL Super Bowl and the CASI "Bowl of Red". In preparing to write this piece, a lot of the specific details have slipped into the "forgotten zone", but it is still a fascinating story, so please don't be too critical of any incorrect details. The whole CASI-Super Bowl story is so great. So, here it goes!

CASI cooks were involved in not one, but TWO SUPER BOWLS: SB XLII held in 2008 (Giants vs. Patriots) and SB XLIX held in 2015 (Seahawks vs. Patriots). Both took place in Glendale, Arizona.

Each involved two cooking events: a normal CASI cook-off before Super Bowl Sunday and the actual Super Bowl chili event held more as a People's Choice event inside the stadium on gameday.

The first adventure began in late 2007 when CASA Pod, the Chili Appreciation Society Arizona, heard that the organizers of Super Bowl XLII were looking for VIP Tailgate Party activities that would bring local color to the event.

CASA Pod offered to hold a chili cook-off and the NFL Events

Can't stop this team! These CASI Cooks cooked and served over 300 gallons of bonafide Texas chili at Super Bowl XLII in Glendale, Arizona in 2008

Committee contractor accepted. CASI cook Roland Regeon handled most of the not so simple logistics.

News about a Super Bowl cookoff unleashed a crush of activity including getting an OK from CASI (which never really came), learning what the individual chili preparation scenarios were going to be, identifying all the people that would participate in the cook-off so they could be cleared by NFL security and then getting everybody to the right place at the right time.

The call went out and over 40 CASI cooks from Arizona, New Mexico and Texas answered. They were organized into teams of two members each. After some unusual preparations I'm about to detail, the teams headed for Glendale.

The schedule: The CASI cook-off was on Saturday, the day before "Super Sunday". On gameday, the cooks would offer chili samples in the VIP Tailgate Party area. VIP tasters would vote for their favorite. So far it sounds straight forward, right? Well, not so fast.

Here is how it worked; for the game day VIP Tailgate party each participating team had to cook no less than 15 gallons of chili at home. Then freeze it and bring it to Glendale in their RV, or the back seat of their car-whatever. For security reasons, the group of cooks were assigned a parking area five miles from the stadium. Once everyone was in the parking area, all the chili was transported on a flat cargo trailer to freezers inside the Super Bowl security zone.

For the regular CASI cookoff, cooks went by charter bus from the parking area to the security area where everyone was issued a photo security badge. We went in under the watchful eye of security.

The Saturday CASI cook-off went off like any other cook-off except it was inside the Super Bowl venue while the setup work for the big game was going on. Fires were lit, chili turned in, judges went to work, and winners announced.

At the end of the day everyone could have some fun in the NFL Events entertainment area before we were bussed back to the parking area where a pretty healthy party went on. We had to be careful because the next day we had an early wake up and head for the VIP Tailgate area which had been completed and secured overnight.

On Super Bowl morning, the same drill; we were bussed to the site, cleared through security. Cooks then went to the VIP Tailgate area where team cook sites were set up. Using funds provided by the Events Committee contractor, each cook site was provided two electric roaster ovens and utensils (we got to keep them).

The thawing, heating, and serving process was crazy (we were under the annoying eye of the county health department), but when the tailgate party area opened, everyone was ready, and the people came in waves. It was a huge People's Choice event. Among the stars Ryan Seacrest, Alicia Keys, Willie Nelson and lots or the rich and famous came through the cook area, sampled the chili. To vote for their favorite, the tasters had to remember the booth number or chili name. They went off to a special area where they voted. There was a lot of lobbying, trash talk and probably even a bribe or two to be sure a taster voted the right way. It was really exhausting, but fun.

After the awards, cooks marched back to the bussing area to head back to our RVs. Traffic was a mess and in the confusion of game day, the buses for our return trip didn't show. Super tired cooks flagged taxis, airport limos and even friendly passersby and mooched or paid for a ride back to the parking area. There were several outdoor TVs and that is where we watched Super Bowl XLII.

Everyone had a really good time, but it was such hard work, no one was sure they would every volunteer again! But as we know, time heals all wounds (and tired legs). So, when a similar opportunity came up in 2015, there was no shortage of volunteer cooks.

Super Bowl XLIX was coming back to Glendale in 2015. Interest in a CASI redux started getting momentum in late 2014. The specifics are a bit obscure, but once again, the NFL Events Committee and Arizona CASI cooks married up. The prime movers for the 2015 effort were CASI cooks Sonja Streich and her husband Scott, owners of a catering business in the Phoenix area. The scenario for 2015 was going to be a lot different. The county health department insisted that all chili be cooked in an approved kitchen on-site. Further, the CASI Chili cook-off prior to game day could not be held on stadium grounds!

This team of 50 CASI Cooks cooked and served Texas chili to the delight of Super Bowl XLIX VIP's in Glendale, Arizona in 2015.

The call went out early for cooks. Recalling what a blast the first Super Bowl experience was like, over 50 CASI cooks responded from around the country. and had to be cleared by NFL security.

Sonja and Scott proved to be geniuses in solving problems. RV parking was reserved in the public tailgater's area in front of a large Cabela's store for the CASI cook-off. The CASI cookoff was like Mardi Gras. The usual colorful popups, beautifully decorated with show themes were everywhere. There wasn't a glitch until things got bogged down while seating judges and wrangling chili. A couple of brave and very experienced Texas cooks jumped in and quickly smoothed things out. It was an enormous success all the way around.

What about those on site cooking requirements? Wizards Sonja and Scott (S&S) found a vocational high school just minutes away from where cooks parked. The school agreed to rent their kitchens for chili cooking and the health department approved it!

The wizardry didn't stop there. "S&S" also devised a logistical plan. Using funds provided by the NFL Events Committee contractor they created a cookoff pantry in two trailers from which cooks could draw everything they needed to prepare chili. Meat was in refrigerators. Spices were lined up on shelves along with knives, spoons, cutting boards, pots, and pans. The "commissary" was set up in the parking lot of the high school. Cooks lined up, drew what each thought they needed, headed into the commercial kitchen and started cooking under the watchful eye of the health department. Again, the amount each team had to prepare a bunch. The kitchen was wonderful chaos!

Numerous small pots of chili were merged into large pots of chili that at the end of the day were to be moved to the game day VIP Tailgate area. The pots of chili cooled in sinks full of ice so they could be transported.

Teams worked very hard. Late in the afternoon we learned that one team would not make it to the kitchen, so at the 11th hour one more batch had to be made! Everybody dove in and cooked smaller pots of chili to be consolidated into one last large pot. There were plenty of tired cooks ready to head back to their RVs and hotels for some rest.

The next morning cooks, in their colorful CASI outfits, security badges in hand, boarded buses for the VIP Tailgate area. For this event, the chili tasting area was the first thing inside the VIP gate. Rows of booths had been set up and each team found their home, outfitted with electric countertop burners and everything else needed. The coolest thing was how voting was handled at this massive People's Choice event. The NFL Events Committee contractor set up a system where tasters could text in their vote.

Chaos in the kitchen? Or just a normal day of chili cooks?

Cooks served tons of chili, votes were tallied, trophies presented, and before the first play, the tired cooks headed back to camp.

There was Super Bowl memorabilia for everyone. Although the security passes clearly said "No Stadium Access" there is a story that a couple of brave West Texans (not further identified) blended in with the entering crowd and found seats in the stadium. For the rest of the cooks, Super Bowl XLIX was over.

So there you have it. The story of how CASI cooks became part of the history of two Super Bowls. By the way, the Super Bowl is scheduled to return to Glendale, Arizona once again in 2023.

Hey Directors!
Hint, hint!

Veterans United hosts windy Alabama State

Mike Whitten congratulates Alabama State Champion Tom Carey (high placing resident).

The Veterans United hosted the CASI Alabama State Chili Championship March 26 at the Yellowhammer Brewery in Huntsville Alabama. We had loads of fun despite the sustained winds of 20+mph and the gust of winds tearing down several canopies. Welcome and thank you to new CASI cooks entering this year's event.

The cookoff raised over $3,000 for the Veterans United charity that supports North Alabama veterans. Veterans United would like to thank CASI for its continued support of this (hopefully) annual event. Join us next year!

Becca Peters

From Jill Snider: I have to give props to Mike Whitten. The wind was so bad it knocked down his tent and sent his cookstove and chili flying to the ground. Mike had to start over, wash off all the dead grass (not sure if any remained in his chili - LOL), and he STILL pulled out 1st place chili!

Dickie Thorpe (TN) places 2nd and Mike Whitten (TX) wins the Alabama State Cook-off,

Chillini Pod Kicks Off Summer Season at Palos Park

PALOS PARK IL—The 2022 summer season kicked-off last Saturday, April 16, with some fairly decent weather and twenty cooks. It was a little cool, but the sun was shining on us, and especially Kim Spencer who won the event and qualified for the TICC with those four points. They have been holding cookoffs in Palos Park since the mid-nineties so they know how to make things run smoothly. They had a good turnout of public to gobble up our chili, which was good to see. It was also great to see all the cooks I’ve missed since last fall. Next up is the Iowa Pod Cookoff in Marion on April 23rd. But first, here’s our winners circle:

Terlingua CSD Wraps Up Their School Year

Chili Appreciation Society International
Board of Directors

As we wind down another school year here at Terlingua Common School District I wanted to take a moment to share some of our accomplishments with one of our most generous partners in CASI. Thankfully, this school year has had a sense of normalcy with a return to classes, extracurriculars, and student events including our annual performance at TICC. Christmas was particularly joyful when the student council students distributed presents purchased using donations from CASI membership. As usual our students have been extremely busy, because if you attend a small school, then you participate in everything we have! Some highlights of the year include Big Bend High School being selected for the Amazon Future Engineer Sponsorship, 12 out 34 BBHS students advancing to Regional II UIL academic competition, breaking ground on our new gymnasium, and our six upcoming graduates.

To update the CASI scholarship committee we are proud of both the classes of 2021 and 2022. The class of 2021 includes an enlistment with the United States Marine Corps, an enrolled student at the University of North Texas, and an enrollee at Sul Ross State University. The class of 2022 includes an enrollee at Midland College, two local entrepreneurs, and enrollee at Texas Tech University, and an enrollee at Texas A&M University. Graduation is May 27, 2022, and we wish all of our graduates great success. Thank you to all the members of CASI for what you have done and what you continue to do for our students.

Make No Mistake: Cooks Meeting, Should I Go?

By Bill Pierson
Senior Referee
Volume 6, Number 5

When was the last time you attended a Head Cooks Meeting? Some cookoffs routinely have them while other cookoffs rarely, if ever, have them. I understand that in today's CASI there are certain challenges involved in holding a cooks meeting. At very large cookoffs, getting all the cooks together in one place at the same time is a logistical challenge, while very small cookoffs with all regular cooks would have difficulty having anything to say. When I started my CASI career, everyone was cooking with hand-cut meat, the normal cooking time was three hours, so the cooks meeting was normally four hours prior to turn-in time. Now, with the advent of ground meat the cooking time is reduced, and some cooks do not arrive at the site until others have started cooking. Regardless the challenges, a Head Cooks Meeting is an essential part of the chili cookoff.

Is a Head Cooks Meeting required? Technically, the answer is no. There is no specific rule in the book that state that a cookoff must hold a cooks meeting. However, there is a reference to such a meeting in Rule I.F, and there are several pages in the Guidelines devoted to the cooks meeting. All these references suggest that the cooks meeting is expected.

In last month's article, I discussed staying true to the information contained in the CASI Cookoff Listing. CASI Rule I.F tells us that the chili will be turned in at the time and place designated at the cooks meeting. If, for some reason, there needed to be a deviation from the cookoff listing, the cooks meeting would be the opportunity to announce that change. And do so within CASI Rules.

Is the Head Cooks Meeting beneficial? Absolutely. When a cook attends a cookoff, he/she wants to feel welcome and informed. Make no mistake, the cooks meeting affords that exact opportunity. It is an opportunity to meet and greet the other cooks, to socialize. Many cookoffs have developed cooks meeting traditions over the years; from the National Anthem, saying the Pledge of Allegiance, to having a shot of tequila.

The Head Cooks Meeting can be, and should be fun, as well as informative. Let's embrace this concept.

UPCOMING EVENTS

CASI

Some people have contacted me about their cookoffs not being in the Trails. Cook-offs must be submitted before the 15th of the month in the month before the Cookoff date to be listed in Upcoming Events. Remember, to meet the cookoff advertising requirement, upcoming cookoffs must be publicized in the Terlingua Trails in the month prior to the event OR be approved and appear on the official calendar 30 days prior to the date of the cookoff. The website always is the most current list of events.

You may enter your information at www.casichili.net or you can complete the Upcoming Cookoff Information form found in the Trails and send it by mail to me at CASI Events, 24810 Red Oak ST, Magnolia, TX 77355 or by email to casievent@casichili.net.

If you have any questions you can reach me at 281-772-2583. Be sure to use the form online to submit or the form located in the Trails. The older versions do not have all the necessary information. Often email addresses, telephone numbers and addresses are left off and I must have them.

When you do not request a rule book or tickets, you will not be mailed a packet. You will instead receive an email with the necessary forms for the cookoff. Please print out the forms and be sure to fill in your event number, date, name and place.

Free Quarter Page Ad for CASI Pod,
State, Regional, and National Open Cook-offs

All CASI Pods are required to conduct a pod cookoff once a year. To help advertise your pod cookoff, you may run a quarter-page ad TWO MONTHS before and in the month your cookoff occurs. This courtesy is also extended to State, Regional, and National Open cookoffs. If you want an ad larger than a quarter page, we will bill you for the difference in price. This ad should not be confused with the article advertising your cookoff in the "Upcoming Events" section. That article starts to run in the next issue after your cookoff is registered and continues until your cookoff occurs.

EVERY COOKOFF RECEIVING A FREE AD IS REQUIRED BY CASI POLICY TO SUBMIT AN ARTICLE AND PHOTOS TO THE TERLINGUA TRAILS AFTER THE EVENT. IF NO NEWS ABOUT THE COOKOFF IS SUBMITTED WITHIN 60 DAYS AFTER THE EVENT, IT WILL BE BILLED FOR THE FULL COST OF THE AD.

SUBMISSION DEADLINE is the 15th of EACH MONTH.
