BATAVIA, IL—The Thirtieth Annual Chillini Pod Chili Cook-off was held Saturday, August 6, 2022. It takes a long time (29 years to be exact) to hold thirty annual events, and I just wonder where all that time went?

We have seen many great people come to our pod during that time; many still remain, while some others have moved on. But they all have contributed to the success and longevity of the Chillini Pod.

The Pod Cook-off has been somewhat of a vagabond cook-off, moving from site-to-site and date-to-date to accommodate other cook-offs. This year we returned to a familiar venue: the Batavia Vikings Lodge that hosted our second Pod Cook-off back in 1994.

The weather that Saturday was rather steamy and it was great to be in an air conditioned building for judging and awards and the pod meeting that followed. As usually happens when you have hot humid conditions, the sky did open up on us. Fortunately, it happened later and most cooks had packed up. The competition was also hot, as evidenced by past TICC Champions taking the top two trophies: 2008 TICC Champ Susan Dean is our 2022 Pod Champion. 2013 TICC Champ Brian Spencer took the 2nd Place Chili trophy. We also celebrated Green Chile and that competition was won by Debra Hunt. A special thank you to Mark Saiz for organizing the judges, Mike Wiltermood for his help with judging and photos, and the Spencer kids for the tallying of scores.

Where will we be in another thirty years? No one knows, but you can be sure the Chillini Pod will be supporting the CASI ideals of Chili, Charity and Fun for as long as we exist.

Bill Pierson

From the CASI ED...

Greetings everyone from Iowa. September has a special meaning for me. It's a pivotable time of the year marking the beginning of the fall season. With school officially started brings the end to many summer activities.

Summer vacations are ending, and after Labor

Day most swimming pools will close. Why do the pools close so early? One simple answer; September is when we see the weather start to really shift to those cooler days. September is also when the corn and soybeans fields start to turn into those fall yellow colors, signaling harvest time is right around the corner. Where I live, September is when you start thinking about polishing the edge of your snow shovel.

For us in the chili world, September also has its special meanings. This time of year, marks one month remaining in the chili year. It's the time when cooks are seeking those final points towards qualification for TICC. It's that month we see all those "Last Chance" cookoffs the last weekend of the chili year. September has always been known as the month of our annual Great Peppers' Meeting.

Planning for the Great Peppers' Meeting is nearing completion. Some final details are all that is left before we meet and discuss the business details of our organization. It's those smaller items that help in making everything go so smoothly. Believe it or not, there are many who enjoy this meeting for all it has to offer. It will be a fun time I know, and I cannot wait until we all gather, mingle, tell stories of when, pitch and discuss new ideas, bring back old ideas, remember our friends lost, and say a toast to our future.

This time of year is also when all the planning for TICC really ramps up. Regular communications start coming out on what is in store for the "Biggest" Chili Championship and party on the planet. In this month's issue you will find the theme of this year's annual golf cart parade. Nightly entertainment has all been arranged. The permits are starting. Merchandise such as contestant shirts are getting ordered. On the personal level, I know several who start getting the RV, golf cart, and other items ready for the annual pilgrimage to the Terlingua desert. We start to dream of the anticipation of once again seeing those Terlingua Skies. The main thing cooks start getting excited about this time of year is hearing their number called from the most prestigious stage in the chili world.

In summary, this time of year is no different than any other. This time of year, or season carries more significance for me. It's the part of the chili year where everything we have been working towards starts to all come together. With this said, I certainly hope I am not the only one who feels this way. See you down the chili trail

Chili Year 2021–2022

Please join me in congratulating all those currently QUALIFIED to participate in the 2022 Terlingua International Chili Championship. To ensure points and qualifiers get awarded to these chili cooks, please consider the online process for submission of your cook-off results. It's an easy process aimed towards immediate submittal of cook-off results and approval of qualifying points.

It is much faster than the USPS. If sending by USPS, it is imperative to address it to the acting TallyMaster, Brian Spencer in Clinton, Iowa. If it is sent anywhere else, your cook-off results will not get processed.

Soon there will be a new TallyMaster. In the meantime, all cook-off results will flow through Brian Spencer until October 1, 2022. This is when your new TallyMaster will officially take over these duties.

I want to hear from you in the event assistance is needed, or if you have any questions. I am here to listen. Please reach out by sending me a note at briancasiED@casichili.net. Or, if you prefer talking, I can be reached at 409-658-3440.

From the Champ: Victory Tour Draws to a Close

I surely do not know where the time goes, but when you are reading this, it will be September and there will only be two months left in my “reign”. It’s hard to believe it goes by so quickly!

Brent and I took a quick mini-vacation to Biloxi, MS for a little bit of gambling. As you will see in the pictures, someone wasn’t happy about us leaving. I think her theory was, if I can’t see you, you can’t see me! Maybe she was hoping I would pack her up too.

We had not been in that direction in many years, since before Hurricane Katrina. It was quite interesting to see what survived (lots of trees!), some houses and buildings too, but there was lots of new construction. And much of the new construction was built up quite high on stilts. I pray they never have a storm like that again, but if they do, it looks like they are better prepared.

Gambling was good to Brent but for me—not so much. As you can see in the picture, even my gambling I didn’t stray too far from chili!

We are hosting a little get-together for our team later this month. We are looking forward to that, as it’s been a while since we have all been together. Then we will be at the Great Peppers’ Meeting in September. It will really be great to see much of our chili family there!

We are finally going to cook chili the first weekend of October to welcome in the new chili year! We will be going to Hallsville for the 25th Annual Western Days Chili Cook-off and the East Texas Chili Pod Cook-off. It will be our first trip there, and we thank David Trice and Mack Walker for the invitation!

In looking at the Upcomings calendar, I see a number of September cook-offs, including several last-chance cook-offs. If you are still looking for points, I hope you attend these and that your number is called last!

Too Damn Hot! Or Not?

Cooking and Cooling Off at the Y Knot Ranch

Saturday winners circle at the Too Damn Hot Cook-off held August 6 at the Y-Knot Ranch in Midland, Texas

The Sanchez family: beneficiary of the weekend fundraiser.

What a place to await results!

Sunday winners circle at the Too Damn Hot Day 2 Cook-off held August 7 at the Y Knot Ranch

Texas and New Mexico cooks did not realize it was “Too Damn Hot” to cook chili outside in Midland, Texas over the August 6th and 7th weekend. The Y Knot Ranch was a fabulous cook-off venue, complete with a tropical themed swimming pool. The two-day event raised over $3,000 for the Sanchez family whose wonderful young toddler has autism. Saturday’s winner was Kent Cavender of Missouri City, Texas. Sunday’s winner was Stephanie Hill of Hobbs, New Mexico. Rick Neely and Jodie Francis got the points they needed for their 2022 TICC Q’s as well.

The 50/50 drawing raised almost $900 with only 27 cooks! The winner donated their half back to the Sanchez family. Chili was the excuse to be there, but the Charity was the reason we cooked.

Three-I Chili Cook-off

PRINCETON, IA—We had a very good cook-off on Saturday, July 16 at the Go Fish Marina Bar & Grill in Princeton, Iowa despite some disappointment. With only 21 cooks, the cook-off will not be sanctioned as a Regional Open, and the Sunday cook-off had to be called off because we lacked the cooks. However, as it turned out, the Regional AQ's were not needed. The winner, Gary Christensen, qualified on points and 2nd and 3rd places were already qualified.

In the process, we found an exceptional campground at Scott County Park. Go Fish Marina Bar & Grill was a great host for the event. There is a lot going on in that tiny town. Hopefully we can make that a regular Iowa cookoff and get cooks used to coming there. Everyone there loved the venue. Here are Saturday's happy faces:

ACES 22nd Annual Pod Cook-off

The ACES Pod Cook-off was held on August 6, 2022, and it was a HOT event. We did have two days of less than 100 degrees. Yes, high 90's, but still less than 100. Bexar Hall was an attentive host.

It was cool inside with plenty of cold beer. As usual, Kenny Morgenroth did an outstanding job on the Friday night shrimp boil. Many thanks to Kenny Morgenroth and his crew. We dined on leftover shrimp Saturday night, along with ham and some delightful side dishes.

Thirty-two CASI cooks joined us on Saturday for the pod cook-off auto-qualifier. Nineteen went to finals. Don Causey was first on Saturday and auto Q'd with 10 points, 2nd Jeff Bauer, 3rd Lanny Thomas, 4th Carrie Kinnison, 5th Susie Morgenroth, 6th John Goforth, Annell Causey also Q'd with her 7th place, 8th Terry Perkins, 9th Sandy Thomas and 10th Wesley Lucky.

Showmanship: 1st Show Jeanette Hodon, 2nd Show Kathie Cielencki and 3rd Show Janet Cielencki.

There were ten Bean entries. 1st Kenny Morgenroth, 2nd Mandy Lindsey and 3rd Greg Lindsey.

Jalapeños had seven entrants. 1st Chris Golson, 2nd Kenny Morgenroth and 3rd Tracey Meek.

The Bowlers Challenge Chili Cook-off had nine entrants. They were as enthusiastic as the CASI cooks in the "FUN" category. 1st Fuzzy Wiederstein, 2nd Brandee Meek and 3rd Gary Friedeck.

The Saturday ceramic pepper themed wind chimes from Joy's Ceramics were a huge success. Joy also made the Sunday pepper trophies.

On Sunday, we had twenty cooks going straight to finals. Terry Perkins was 1st and Q'd, 2nd Laura

McDaniel, 3rd Mandy Lindsey and Q'd, 4th Janet Cielencki, 5th Jessie Waguespack, 6th Sherrie

Winners Circle for the 22nd Annual ACES Pod Cook-off held August 6th at the Bexar Bowling Society and Social Hall in Marion, Texas.

Davis, 7th Annell Causey, 8th Fortino Quintanilla and Q'ed, 9th Earl (Who) Gorhum and 10th Lanny Thomas.

Showmanship: 1st Show Jeanette Hodon, 2nd Show Janet Cielencki and 3rd Show Kathy Cielencki.

There are a multitude of people to thank. Suzi Marsh and Sherrie Davis for registration. Bob Steinle for Head Judge. Kenny Morgenroth for Friday's cook's party. Everyone that helped with judging both days, there were a lot of you and you are all awesome and very much appreciated.

Bexar Bowling and Social Club's building fund will receive a donation following the next ACES Pod meeting.

Many thanks to all that attended, cooked, judged and worked tirelessly.

Oklahoma State and HOOCH Pod Cook-offs

Lanny Thomas of Seguin, Texas won First Place Chili at the Oklahoma State Championship held August 13 in Tulsa.

Mike Barber of Tulsa, Oklahoma wins the HOOCH Pod Cook-off held August 14 in Tulsa. One win and two “Q’s” in two days. Not a bad weekend!

The Oklahoma State and HOOCH Pod Cook-offs held on August 13th and 14th in Tulsa, Oklahoma were two very successful cook-offs. Cooks from Texas, Missouri, Kansas, Arkansas and of course Oklahoma were treated with great hospitality at the American Legion Post 1. Yes, you read that correctly–Post 1! We had birthday celebrations, the Post inducted an officer and the best part we were allowed to cook inside!

Lanny Thomas of Seguin, Texas won the Oklahoma State Championship Cook-off. The top placing resident and Oklahoma State Champion was Tucker Snyder. The other Oklahoma residents in the top three who earned their automatic TICC qualifications were Mike Barber and Elizabeth Evelyn-Sanders. Deanna Johnson fell just short of that auto-qualification with 7th place and was the 4th highest placing Oklahoma resident.

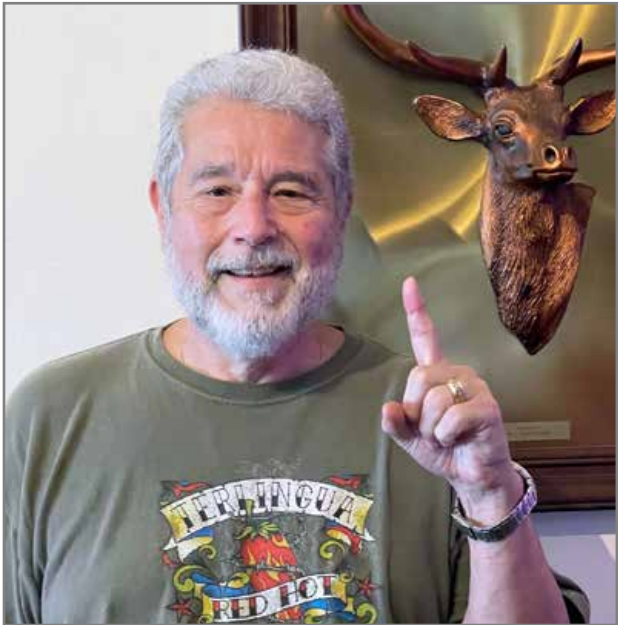

The Sunday HOOCH Pod Cook-off had a great turnout with Mike Barber taking the top spot and “double” qualifying for TICC. Once again CASI cooks proved they will do anything to help a fellow cook. Someone forgot their stove, pot and spices, but the other cooks rallied, found what she needed and everyone had a great time!

HOT SAUCE

GETS YOUR CHILI COOKIN'!

A large, light green ceramic bowl filled with a hearty chili. The chili is topped with a generous amount of Louisiana Hot Sauce, which is visible as a thick, red, glossy layer. To the right of the bowl, a bottle of Louisiana Hot Sauce stands upright. The bottle has a yellow label with red and blue accents, featuring the brand name "LOUISIANA" in large, bold letters, followed by "THE PERFECT BRAND" and "HOT SAUCE". Below this, a red circle contains the text "ONE DROP DOES IT®". At the bottom of the label, it says "NET 12 FL OZ (354 mL)". The background of the advertisement is a bright yellow with a red scalloped border. In the top left corner, there is a yellow circular logo with the text "THE ORIGINAL 'LOUISIANA' BRAND HOT SAUCE" and a red circle with a black outline.

Four Corners Regional Draws Cooks from Near and Far

The Four Corners Regional took place in Hobbs, New Mexico on July 16, 2022. We had twenty-five cooks come out to support our regional! Some cooks came all the way from North Texas which included Todd Carey, Susan Spencer and Brandon Marshall. Ron and Lauri Boisseranc traveled all the way from Minden, Nevada. Doc and Carrie Kinnison traveled from Marble Falls to be with us this fantastic weekend!

Hobbs native Thomas Navarette took home the Regional Championship. It was only his third time cooking competitively. Look out Terlingua! We have a brand-new cook in tow!

Our Top Ten Chilis: 1st Thomas Navarette-Hobbs, NM; 2nd Doc Kinnison-Marble Falls, TX; 3rd Phillip Twyman-Hobbs NM; 4th Brandy Rather-Hobbs, NM; 5th Todd Carey-Burleson, TX; 6th Carrie Kinnison-Marble Falls, TX; 7th Jimmy Rather-Hobbs, NM; 8th Donna Navarette-Hobbs, NM; 9th Ron Bosseranc-Minden, NV; and 10th Susan Flowers-Hobbs, NM.

Make No Mistake: Referees and Cook-offs

By Bill Pierson
Senior Referee
Volume 6, Number 9

There are a couple rules pertaining to referees at cook-offs, that while I'm sure most everyone is familiar with, the reason for them might not be clear to all.

Each and every CASI cook-off, seeking sanctioning, must have a CASI referee on site during the cook-off. In order for a cook-off to be sanctioned, CASI must be assured that its rules were followed at the cook-off. The referee is the individual responsible for reporting to CASI that, indeed, the rules were followed. Finding a referee for a cook-off rarely is a problem; we have a well-organized system of Regional and Area referees. Occasionally, a cook-off pops up in an area where there is no referee coverage, or the cook-off falls on top of other cook-offs in that region. When those situations arise, CASI teamwork shows up and other regions will help out and cover the cook-off. Make no mistake, all sanctioned cook-offs will have a referee to be responsible for the conduct of the event.

There is a rule that says that any open championship must have a CASI Great Pepper or Regional Referee as the head judge. I suppose the reason for that is to ensure that the head judge of a major championship is capable of the task, and a responsible individual. Compliance with this rule is also difficult in areas where there is no pod, no Great Pepper or Regional Referee. On the other hand, the lack of a qualified head judge can allow a lot of bad things to occur. Make no mistake, the Senior Referee's Office is capable of helping cook-offs navigate these issues, and willing to help.

This chili year is now in its final month, I hope it has been a good one for you.

Terlingua Trails Update

Volunteers Needed!

Why Didn't.... Why Didn't.... I get a lot of "why didn't" questions. Why Didn't I get my Trails? Your membership has lapsed, your firewall blocked the email, the document is so large your old service wouldn't accept it...

Why Didn't I see an article about the cook-off I attended in the Trails? The sponsor didn't send one in or didn't send in any pictures. Anyone can write an article and submit pictures to the Trails.

Why Didn't the TICC store open longer or have better options? No volunteers and the Directors over the store had other obligations. Each year we ask for recommendations or for someone to design T-shirts with very little response.

Let's turn those WHY DIDN'Ts into I DID! Sign Up Genius is up and running <https://casichili.fun/2022vsu>. A big thank you to those who already signed up!

It is their goal to reach as many students as possible in order to give them a chance at a bright future. More than 31,000 school children visited TASM to participate in the educational programs giving these children access to material, facilities, and quality educational program from the facilities. Free Quarter Page Ad for CASI Pod, State, Regional, and National Open Cook-offs

All CASI Pods are required to conduct a pod cookoff once a year. To help advertise your pod cookoff, you may run a quarter-page ad TWO MONTHS before and in the month your cookoff occurs. This courtesy is also extended to State, Regional, and National Open cookoffs. If you want an ad larger than a quarter page, we will bill you for the difference in price. This ad should not be confused with the article advertising your cookoff in the "Upcoming Events" section. That article starts to run in the next issue after your cookoff is registered and continues until your cookoff occurs.

EVERY COOKOFF RECEIVING A FREE AD IS REQUIRED BY CASI POLICY TO SUBMIT AN ARTICLE AND PHOTOS TO THE TERLINGUA TRAILS AFTER THE EVENT. IF NO NEWS ABOUT THE COOKOFF IS SUBMITTED WITHIN 60 DAYS AFTER THE EVENT, IT WILL BE BILLED FOR THE FULL COST OF THE AD.

SUBMISSION DEADLINE is the 15th of EACH MONTH.
